LOCATION

“Located in the heart of the forest and only one hour from Paris, Fontainebleau is an imperial city, marked by a rich history and an exceptional natural heritage. Listed as a World Heritage Site by UNESCO, Fontainebleau is the only palace that has been inhabited by all the crowned heads of France from the 12th to the 19th centuries.

Eight centuries of royal presence, 34 kings, 2 emperors, 1.500 rooms, Fontainebleau can still claim to be the most furnished palace in Europe! Napoleon I called it, unreservedly, “the true home of kings”.

LOCATION

The forest of Fontainebleau, recognized by UNESCO as a world-class Natural Biosphere Reserve, is unique in its kind, a real paradise for nature lovers.

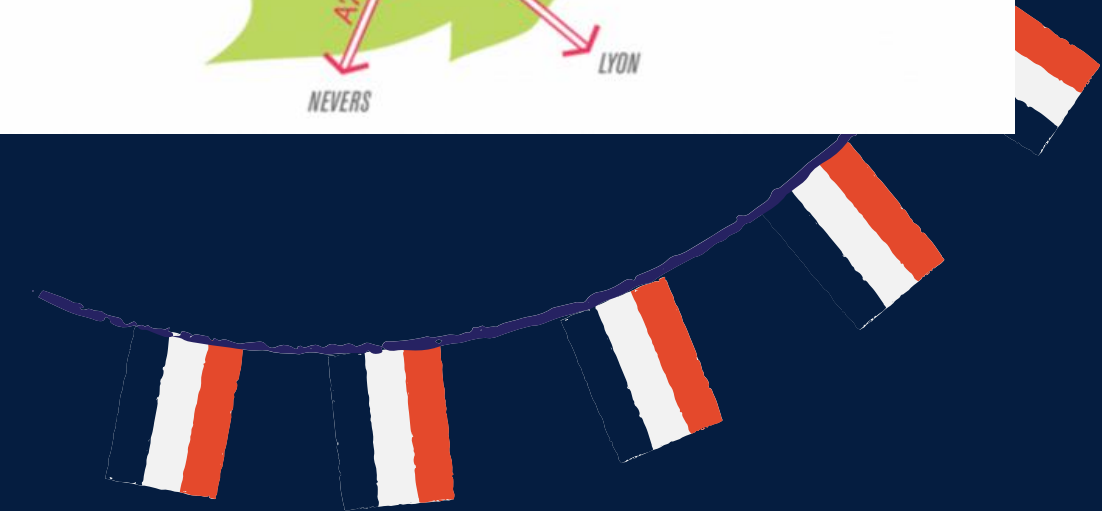

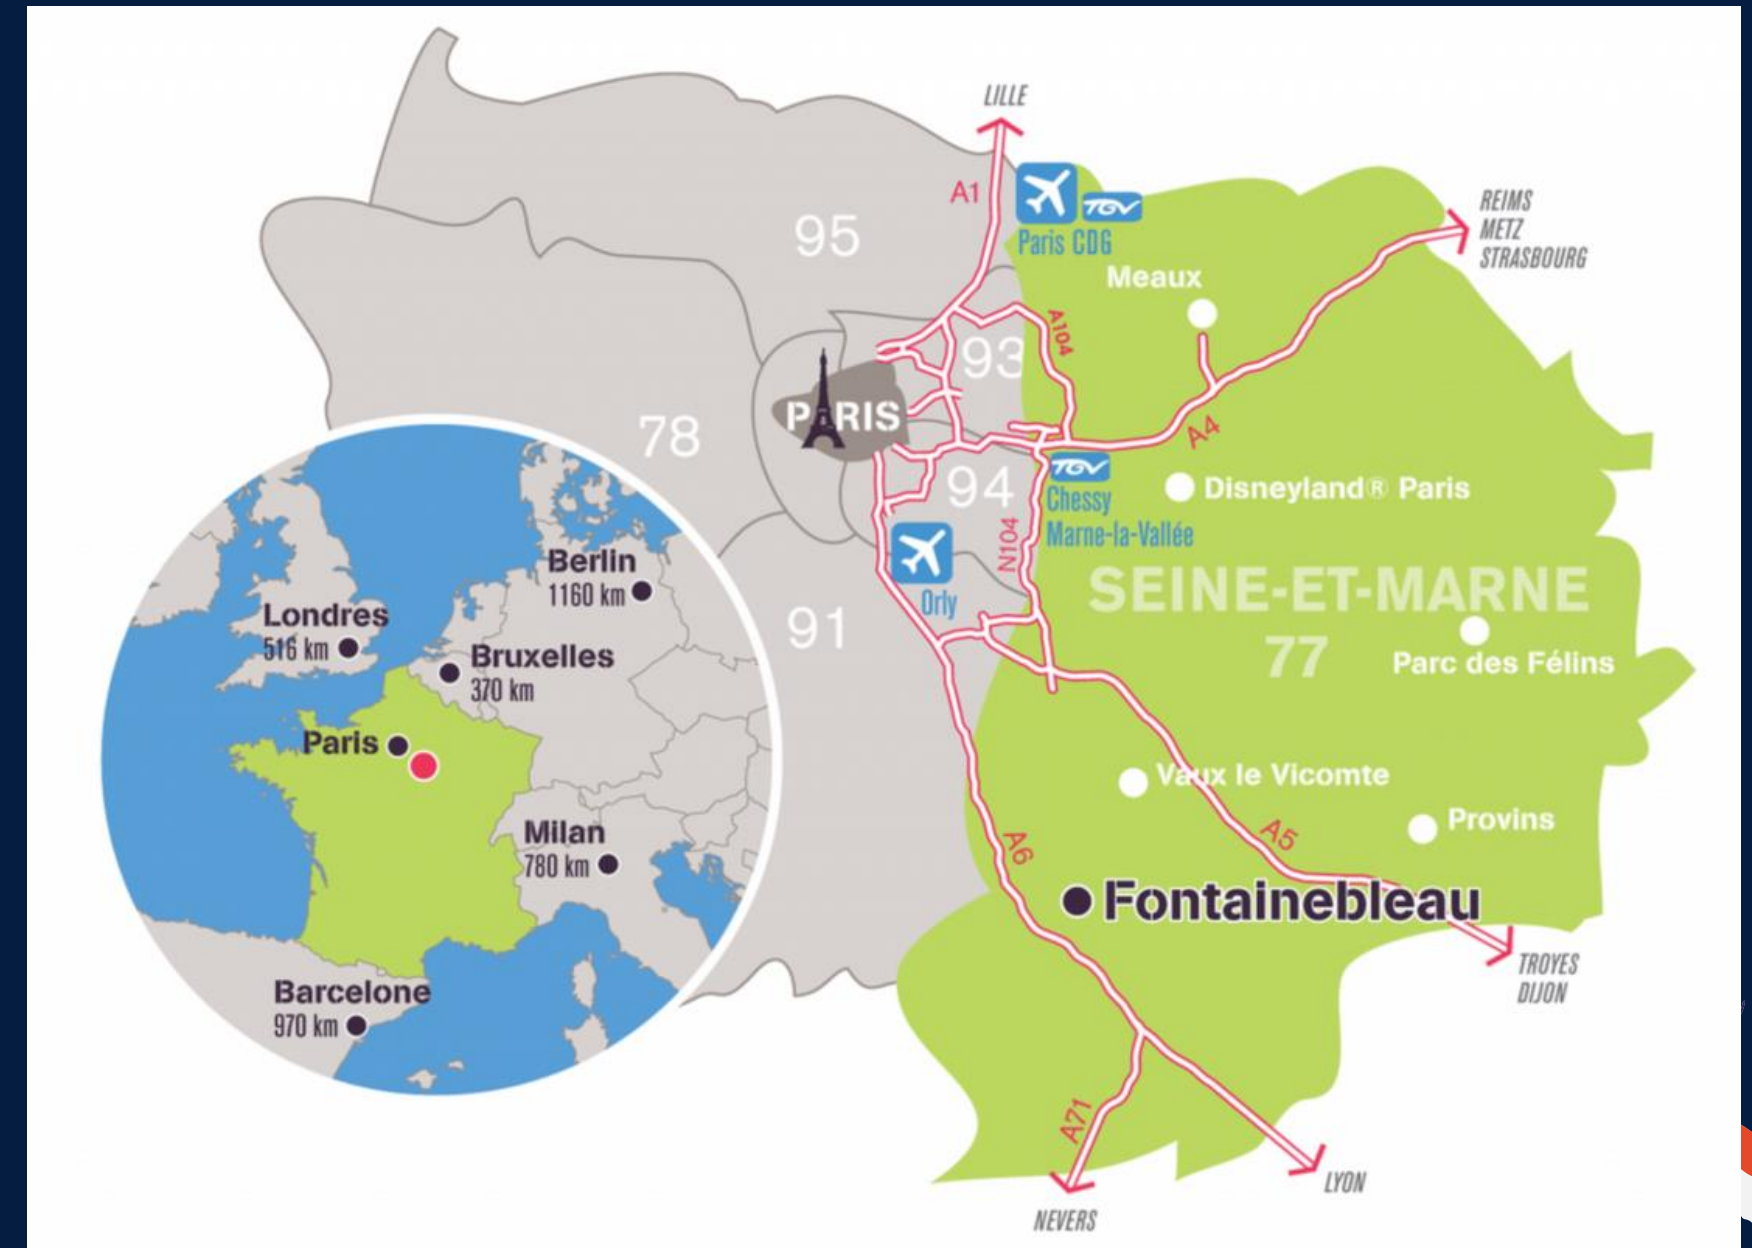

With 11 million visitors a year, more than 1.200 species of animals and plants, the forest offers a vast network of signposted paths for walkers, cyclists and horse-riders. It is also a site known worldwide for rock-climbing!

LOCATION

“Le Grand Parquet”, once a royal hunting ground, has now become a unique site devoted to equestrian, corporate and outdoor events.

The site covers 30 hectares and can welcome up to 10,000 people with 1200 parking spaces, and easy access from the nearby A5 and A6 motorways, Orly airport 40 km away, and Fontainebleau-Avon station 5 km away.
